

Thank you for visitng our new web site

Please find our slate and stone products on the left hand side of this page if you would like any further information please contact us and one of our sales team will be happy to help.

About Us ·

Our family company is based in the heart of Snowdonia, North Wales we produce and manufacture various products in Welsh slate from roofing material that will last over 100 years internal floor tiles to external thick paving slabs suitable for paths and driveways cladding panels for external walls in 30mm thickness, pillared selected walling that looks and feels traditional easy to work with and has an unique finish only found in Welsh dark blue slate we also have wall coping in fine rubbed or riven natural finish that will protect your external wall from the elements and last with no problems with fading or discolouring, slate sills internal and external with optional edge detail in a fine rubbed finish or riven, slate worktops are also available please contact the office with your requirements and also slate hearths made to measure cut to your required size, various edge option detail available.

We have developed our new web site with our customers in mind please use the menu on the left hand side to navigate through our products with additional information found at the top of each page regarding delivery details, British Standard test results and also full information on how to fix and work with our slate.

